

2020 Hanyang International Summer School

HANYANG UNIVERSITY

Hanyang University

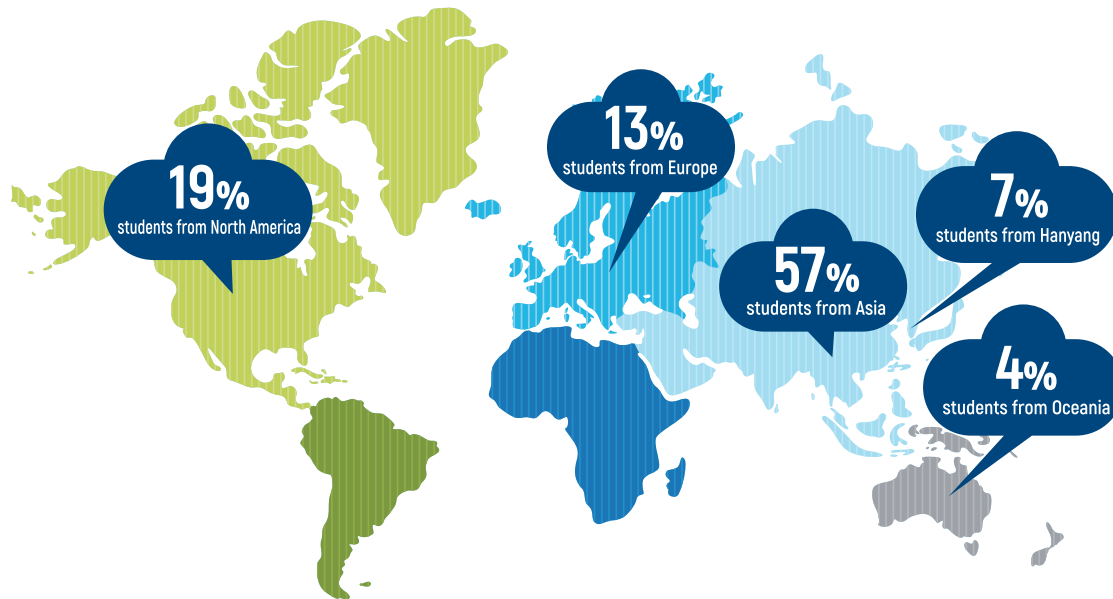

Hanyang University is the successor of DongA Polytechnic Institute, which was established in 1939 as the first engineering college in Korea. Today, Hanyang is home to more than 32,000 students in 24 colleges and 21 graduate schools. To continue its momentum of progress, Hanyang University has been striving to promote internationalization and consequently, every semester over 1,000 courses instructed in English are offered by about 200 foreign professors. Efforts such as these have allowed Hanyang to recruit more than 10,000 international students in total while boosting relations with about 800 universities worldwide.

Welcome to HISS 2020

Hanyang International Summer School is the biggest and most popular summer programs in Korea. Every year, around 2,000 students spent 4 weeks in one of Korea's leading private universities. HISS offers world-class education combined with a variety of unique cultural experiences. Every year HISS is thrilled to host an increasing number of students and faculty from around the world, and this year we are looking forward to meeting you!
